GEORGE WHITMAN
Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

George Whitman was born in Bedfordshire, England, January 7, 1844.

He married Ann Turner in 1866 and came to Utah with his wife and family in 1868 to make his home in Lehi.

Mr. Whitman worked as a section hand for the Union Pacific Railroad for years; for the Rio Grande Railroad for a number of years; and also on the Saratoga Farm.

He died at the age of seventy two, March 21, 1916 at Lehi, Utah.